

ACCELERATING LITERACY GROWTH

2021 22

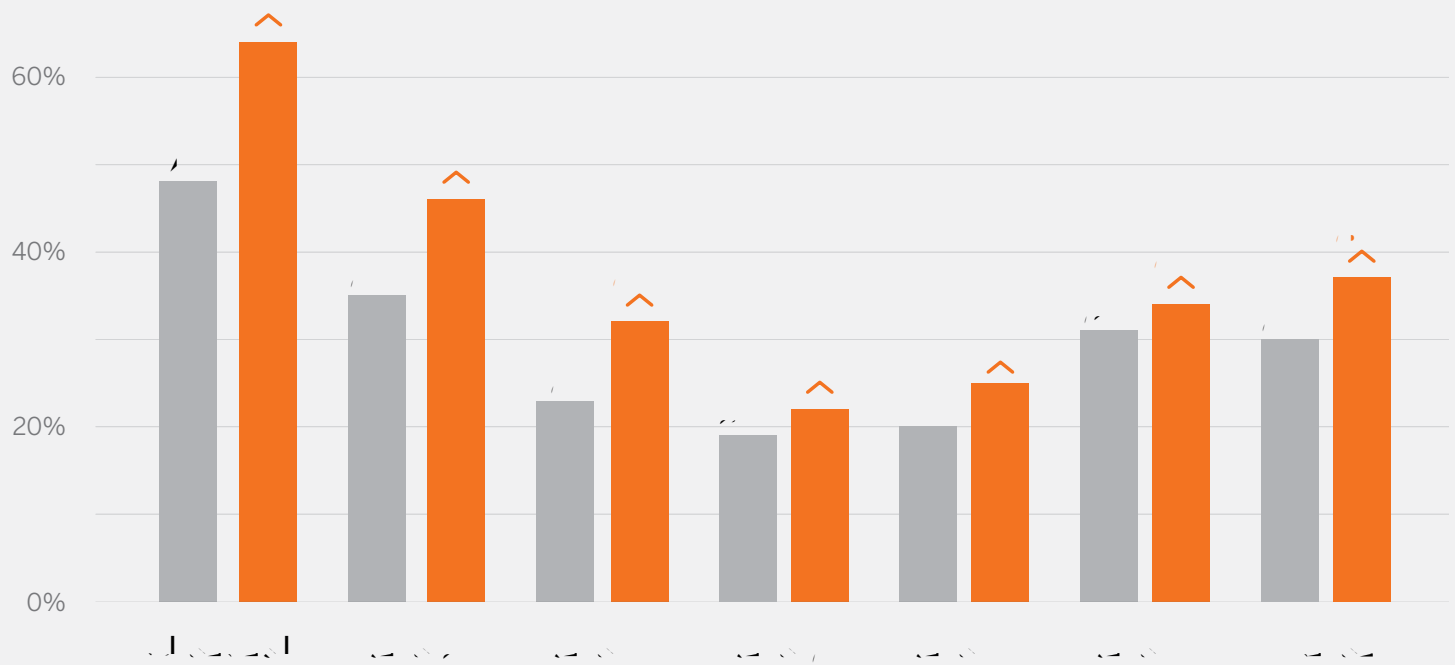

Boost Reading is a research-based, evidence-based, and culturally responsive literacy intervention that is designed to accelerate literacy growth for students who are at risk of reading failure. It is a comprehensive, multi-tiered intervention that includes explicit instruction in phonics, fluency, and comprehension, as well as opportunities for students to practice reading and writing in authentic contexts.

Boost Reading is a research-based, evidence-based, and culturally responsive literacy intervention that is designed to accelerate literacy growth for students who are at risk of reading failure. It is a comprehensive, multi-tiered intervention that includes explicit instruction in phonics, fluency, and comprehension, as well as opportunities for students to practice reading and writing in authentic contexts.

This study meets Tier 2 Moderate ESSA Evidence.

Boost Reading is a research-based, evidence-based, and culturally responsive literacy intervention that is designed to accelerate literacy growth for students who are at risk of reading failure. It is a comprehensive, multi-tiered intervention that includes explicit instruction in phonics, fluency, and comprehension, as well as opportunities for students to practice reading and writing in authentic contexts.

A-risk students

A personalized reading program powered by the Science of Reading

ESSA Tier 2 Moderate Evidence Rating

This national research study meets the Every Student Succeeds Act's (ESSA) Tier 2 Moderate Evidence criteria, showing significant and positive effects on student outcomes.